

Under no circumstances do I do want companies to have the ability to buy more than 35 percent of the stations in a given market.